IIAM PUBLIC TRAINING

OVERVIEW

Do Internal Auditors enhance and protect organisational value by providing risk based and objective assurance, advice and insights?

They should demonstrate achievement of the core principles for the professional practice of Internal Auditing and provide risk-based assurance while conforming with relevant standards on risk-based audits.

This course will provide the essential processes and toolkits plus practices for effective risk-based audits to deliver results that matter. The processes will address the organisation's overall risks and the management of such risk. The toolkits will help design audit programs that focus on the risks of the organization and evaluates the effectiveness of risk management. Risk-based auditing shows the possibilities for higher impact and where internal audit can make a significant difference to the organisation.

When risk-based audits are done right, Internal Audit resources will be able to deliver a measurable and tangible return on investment.

What is this intensive 2 day course about?

This two-day course is designed to help Internal Auditors understand how to plan, perform and deliver risk-based assurance. It outlines the principles, processes and tools for risk-based auditing and applying these to audit planning, audit engagements and the audit of risk mitigation and management. It includes reference to relevant risk management standards like ISO 31000: 2018 and COSO ERM 2017 and to the IPPF.

How will this course be delivered?

This is a learning coach-led course. It incorporates hands-on activities which enhances the learning process by seeing how typical risk-based activities are conducted. The workshop involves lectures, class discussion and exercises using templates as the key tools.
