MY STORY BY MR CHARLES

1. Why did you decide to pursue a career as an internal auditor?

To gain an in-depth up-close understanding of the processes, policies and of an organization.

2. How important is an Internal Auditor's role in the organisation?

Internal audit activity helps an organization accomplish its objectives by bringing a systematic, disciplined approach to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of risk management, control, and governance processes.

3. What is the typical challenge internal auditors generally face? And amongst them, can you highlight what would be one of the biggest challenges?

Evolving audit skill needs. Analytical and critical thinking skills have been a necessity to internal auditors, but subject matter needs are expanding exponentially.

4. Does the Institute play a role in supporting your Internal Auditor scope of work? If yes, in what ways? And if no, what can we do better?

Yes. By providing training that meets the Internal Auditor's needs.

5. Would you recommend IIA Malaysia to your fellow IA colleagues?

YES!
