AUDITING THE DATA PRIVACY POLICY

(DEVELOPED BY GLOBAL IIA)

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

When business leaders and boards are asked about their top concerns, protecting customer data usually is on top of the list. According to Gartner, by 2023, 65% of the world's population will have their personal data protected by privacy regulations. In addition, UNCTAD stated that in 2022 137 out of 194 countries have put in place data protection and privacy regulations.

The objective of a data privacy policy audit is to assess an organization's privacy protection posture against any regulatory requirements – or international best practices validating the organizations policy is supported by an effective internal control structure.

This course will provide participants with an overview of data privacy regulations, and specific considerations for designing and performing an audit of their organization's data privacy policy.
