

2026 FRAUD AUDITING

(Developed By Global IIA)

IIAM
GLOBAL SERIES

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

According to ACFE, "internal audit detects fraud 15% of the time, while external audit merely 4% of the time." How can we as the internal audit profession, break away from this stigmatic statistic?

This course will provide participants with an overview of the detection, assessment, investigation, and mitigation of fraud. This course also addresses fraud risk management and the importance of a fraud risk framework in mitigating fraud at an organizational level.

During this course, areas of potential high fraud risk will be discussed and recommendations for mitigation of fraud are presented.

This course will provide participants with an overview of the detection, assessment, investigation, and mitigation of fraud. This course also addresses fraud risk management and the importance of a fraud risk framework in mitigating fraud at an organizational level. Finally, participants will deepen their understanding of fraud types, sources, and risks and how to apply this insight at the engagement level, through a lens of innovative techniques.

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM THIS PROGRAM?

This course will advance participants' understanding of identifying fraud through an audit risk assessment. This course is designed for internal auditors with a basic understanding of fraud, who would like to dive deeper into assessing fraud risk at the engagement level. This course is also for those who have been involved in internal audit engagements that require an understanding of how to manage organizational risk related to fraud.
