KUALA LUMPUR: Perdana Menteri Anwar Ibrahim menegaskan keperluan audit dalaman yang telus dalam pentadbiran negara penting bagi menangani isu ketirisan, rasuah dan penyelewengan.

Anwar yang juga menteri kewangan berkata usaha membanteras salah laku itu memerlukan pemantauan rapi ke atas jentera kerajaan dengan kerjasama penuh daripada Bursa Malaysia, Suruhanjaya Sekuriti dan syarikat swasta.

Menurutnya, Ketua Audit Negara Wan Suraya Wan Mohd Radzi telah maklum yang mereka diberi ruang untuk memantau agensi kerajaan dari dekat.

"Kita bicara tentang perlunya kita pacu pertubuhan, tetapi dalam mana-mana negara dengan kekuatan ekonomi tidak mungkin dapat menyelesaikan masalah sekiranya dibiarkan, ketelanjuran dari segi ketirisan dan juga rasuah penyelewengan terus berlaku," katanya.

Beliau berkata demikian ketika merasmikan Persidangan Gabungan Institut Juruaudit Dalaman Asia (ACIIA) 2025.

Mengulas lanjut, Anwar berkata cabaran terbesar dalam sejarah mana-mana negara adalah menangani gejala rasuah kerana pihak terlibat biasanya memiliki kekuatan kewangan dan pengaruh besar.

"Seperti kita alami dalam banyak skandal kewangan sebelum ini termasuk 1MDB, ia tidak mungkin berlaku tanpa penglibatan juruaudit, juruaudit dalaman dan institusi kewangan antarabangsa.

"Kita mesti mengambilnya sebagai cabaran untuk menyelamatkan masyarakat serta negara daripada penyelewengan ini," katanya.

Anwar berkata komitmen kerajaan dalam menangani masalah itu dapat dilihat dengan penubuhan Jawatankuasa Tindakan Ketidakteraturan Serius (JTKS) bagi menangani segera pelanggaran kritikal dalam
