

PUBLIC TRAINING

KL01 – Audit Planning: RIGHT from the START

20 & 21 January 2021

OVERVIEW

Undeniably, it is becoming increasingly difficult for Internal Auditors in the workplace to stay abreast of the rapidly changing environment of Internal Audit as well as organisational demands, both in the public and private sectors. Besides the increasing level of efficiency expected, the Internal Audit is also expected to focus on a myriad of Strategic, Governance, Compliance and Risk issues (both current and emerging) confronting the organization's businesses which are ever growing in term of volume, complexity and geographical reach.

In order to cope with demand of the businesses and expectations of its stakeholders, the Internal Audit would have no other choice but to revisit and re-engineer its existing approach and processes starting from Audit Planning so as not to be caught in the famous saying: "Failing to plan is planning to fail".

OBJECTIVES

At the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Critically evaluate its current Audit Planning approach and processes to gauge its position in relation to the demand and expectation of its stakeholders.
- Apply useful Audit Planning tools and approach to drive Audit Execution to improve resource allocation, enhance efficiency and quality of its final deliverables.
