

INFLUENCING SKILLS FOR AUDITORS

OVERVIEW

Successful auditors are effective influencers who can succinctly conveying observations, recommendations, feedback, and conclusions to all stakeholders who range from fellow auditors, auditees, senior management, the Audit Committee, and the Board of Directors. These are accomplished through effective influencing skills utilised during meetings, presentations, interviews, and negotiations with all stakeholders. This course navigates the participant through the various practical challenges and allows the development of key understanding and skills to overcome these challenges with successful results.
