

MACC ACT SECTION 17A: CHECKING YOUR ADEQUATE PROCEDURES TRUST PROGRAMME FOR PERFORMANCE, COMPLETENESS AND EFFECTIVENESS

www.iam.com.my

OVERVIEW

2020 saw many companies establish their anti-corruption programmes as enforcement of the MACC Act Section 17A commenced from 1st June 2020 onwards. Section 17A introduced corporate liability for corruption offences for the first time under Malaysian law and includes large fines for companies and jail sentences for directors and top management. The sole defence is the 'adequate procedures' the company has established to prevent, detect and respond to corruption.

With policies and procedures now in place, directors and top management are anxious to know whether the company meets the adequate procedures requirements set out in the Prime Minister's Office Guidelines on Adequate Procedures. This seminar explores ways to assess the completeness and effectiveness of the anti-corruption programme.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

This seminar explores methods and techniques which can be used for checking the completeness and effectiveness of a company's anti-corruption programme. The session will be useful to any person with an interest in ensuring their company's anti-corruption programme is fit for purpose and meets the requirements of the Prime Minister's Office official guidelines.
