Anwar says governance must rest on transparency, accountability and trust

Story by Anis Zalani • 1d • 2 min read

Malay Mail

KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 9 — Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim today said that confidence in governance must be built on transparency, accountability and trust, backed by strong checks and balances.

Feedback

Speaking at the Asian Confederation of Institutes of Internal Auditors (ACIIA) Conference, Anwar stressed that power must always be matched with responsibility, with auditors playing a key role in safeguarding institutions, markets and societies.

Crisis-hit France is on the verge of mass civil unrest with some warning of an insurrection after the surprise collapse of President Emmanuel Macron 's government on Monday. French Prime Minister François Bayrou lost a confidence vote of MPs over his austerity budget, plunging the country into political turbulence as it teeters on the brink of economic crisis over spiralling debt.
